

Public Relations and Information Office,
Room 215, Administration Building,
7141 Sherbrooke Street West,
Montreal 262, Quebec,
Telephone 482-0320, Ext. 437-438.

November 26, 1971.

The English Department is sponsoring the showing of RACHAEL, RACHAEL, a film version of Margaret Laurence's second novel (originally titled "A Jest of God") written in 1966.

The plot concerns the experiences of a young woman in a small town in Manitoba.

The film stars Paul Newman and Joanne Woodward.

The film will be shown once only in the F.C. Smith Auditorium.

DATE: Thursday, December 2. TIME: 1:15 p.m.

The price of admission will be 50 cents.

Margaret Laurence is a contemporary Canadian novelist of international fame. Her other works include: The Stone Angel, The Tomorrow-tamer, A Bird in the House.